

DeWitt Community Library presents...

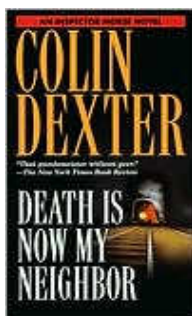

Mystery Book Club

AUTUMN 2009

A book discussion group for all mystery lovers! Join us as we read and discuss some of the best tales of murder, deceit, and suspense. Discover new authors and old favorites! Even if you haven't read the monthly selection, drop by to share a love of mysteries!
New members welcome!

Death is Now My Neighbor

by Colin Dexter

Thurs., September 10 @ 7:00 pm

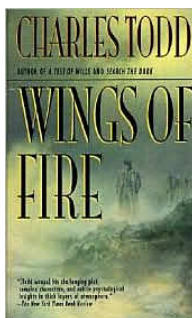

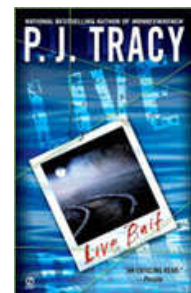

Chief Inspector Morse, investigating the murder on Bloxham Drive, follows a trail that leads to a university where two senior dons are vying for position. For Morse and his partner, Sergeant Lewis, the question becomes: Is the Mastership of Lonsdale university worth killing for? (324 pgs)

Live Bait

by P. J. Tracy

Thurs., October 8 @ 7:00 pm

St. Paul police detectives Leo Magozzi and Gino Rolseth look into the murder of an elderly man, found face up near his greenhouse with a bullet hole in his head, the first in a string of murders. (400 pgs)

Wings of Fire

by Charles Todd

Thurs., November 12 @ 7:00 pm

WWI veteran, Inspector Ian Rutledge, is sent to investigate the sudden deaths of three members of the same eminent Cornwall family. Now, Ian must uncover the haunting truths of murder and madness rooted in a family crypt...(320 pgs)

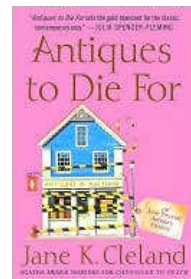

Antiques to Die For

by Jane K. Cleland

Thurs., December 10 @ 7:00 pm

We end the year with a look at the Josie Prescott mystery series by Jane K. Cleland. A relative newcomer to the world of mysteries, Cleland's series features an antiques dealer dealing with an often cutthroat business.

In Antiques to Die For, Rosalie confided a secret to her friend Josie, and now Rosalie is dead. Rosalie left behind information that leads to a mysterious treasure and a secret admirer who has turned his creepy attention to Josie. (320 pgs)

Library programs are free, and registration is encouraged for all our programs.

Discussion books are available for reserve through the library system.

The DeWitt Community Library is located in the lower level of ShoppingTown Mall near the Regal Cinemas Entrance.

For more information, call the library at (315) 446-3578 or visit: www.dewlib.org.