

National Parks

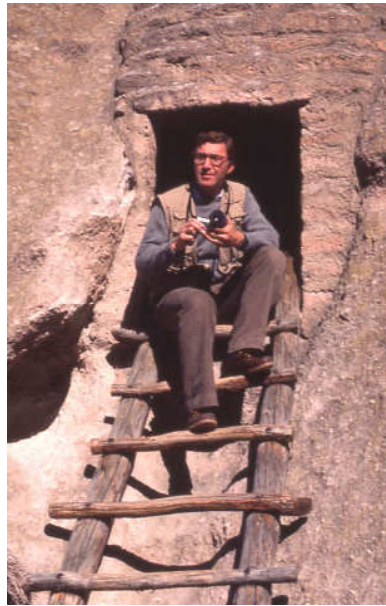

Heritage Architecture and Travel Tips

Thursday,
July 24, 2008
7:00pm

Buckland Room
DeWitt Community
Library

Each year millions of Americans make family trips to our National Parks.

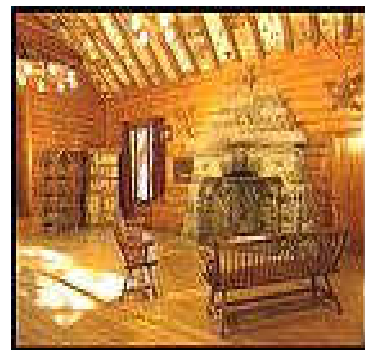

Learn more about these American Beauties and receive helpful tips on what to see and do while there.

Author, Harvey Kaiser, offers a fast, fun, colorful slide show of images from his latest title The National Park Architecture Sourcebook featuring special architecture found at over 216 National Parks.

Kaiser is the author of numerous books on Parks & Recreation topics including the popular Camps of the Adirondacks— (image at right is from this book) featured on HGTV and in NY Times articles.

Q&A and book-signing follows.

Registered yet?
You can today at the Front Desk!

